KUJUZYANIA MUCHITONGA.

[Translation] greetings in tonga language.

In the Tonga language, greetings follow a similar pattern to other Bantu languages, taking into account the time of day, the number of people being greeted, and the status of the person being addressed.

KUJUZYANIA KWAKUSEENI AAKATI KABALONGWE BASELA LIMWI.

[Trans...] Morning greetings among equals: Addressing Friends and Peers.

Note; ✧ Biyeni and Buti are used interchangeably in greeting. ✧ Nywe and nywebo as well as we and webo are also used interchangeably in responding.
Kujuzya/Greetings	Chikuwa/English	Kuvwiila/Responding
Woonu biyeni/buti?	How did you sleep?	Ndoona kabotu, woonu biyeni we/webo? [Trans] I am well, how are you?
Wabuka biyeni/buti?	Good morning?	Ndabuka kabotu, wabuka biyeni we/webo? [Trans] I am fine, how are you?

KUJUZYANIA KWAKUSEENI KWABANTU BALEMEKWA ABANTU BIINGI.
[Trans] Respectful morning greetings for distinguished individuals and crowds.

Kujuzyania/Greeting	Chikuwa/Chikuwa	Kuvwiila/Responding
Moona biyeni?	How did you sleep?	Toona kabotu, moona biyeni nywebo? [Trans] We are well, how are you?
Mwabuka biyeni?	Good morning	Twabuka kabotu, mwabuka biyeni nywebo?

KUJUZYANIA KWASIKATI KWABALONGWE BASELA LIMWI.

[Trans] Afternoon greetings among equals: Addressing Friends and Peers.

Kujuzyania	Chikuwa	Kuvwiila
Wayusa buti?	Good afternoon?	Ndayusa wayusa buti webo? [Trans] I am fine, how are you?

KUJUZYANIA KWASIKATI KWABANTU BALEMEKWA ABANTU BIINGI.
